Proposal to post mr D. Madan Gopal Raj urs, after his return from Special Duty

Submitted

It is since understood that mr Madan Gopal Raj urs, Asst. Comr, was relieved of his special duty in the Palace, on the afternoon of 26th instant. On the last occasion, when he returned from leave, he was posted to the charge of the Dt. Treasury, Mysore, at his own request and on his representing that it was inconvenient for him to leave Mysore immediately. He will have, therefore, to be continued at Mysore as mr D.L. Kantam, who is now in charge of the Dt Treasury, proceeds to a place elsewhere.

Mr P. Kamaraj urs, Spl I class Magistrate, Chamarajpet has applied for the grant of privilege leave for two months from 9th May 1938. Notification granting him leave is under issue and the Dy Comr has also been requested to suggest the name of an Asst. Comr to be posted to the charge of the Court at Chamarajpet.

Under these circumstances, it is for consideration whether Mr Madan Gopal Raj urs may not be asked to take charge of the Dt Treasury, Mysore and mr D.L. Kantam be called upon to submit recommendations regarding his posting
